Atlanta, September 22, 2009 – Alex Wan, a businessman and civic leader who is seeking the Atlanta City Council District 6 seat, is the guest of honor at a forum for Asian media at Noon on September 30 at Hanil Kwan Korean Restaurant. Wan will be discussing issues that affect Atlanta's Asian community

The event will include several large ethnic newspapers, as well as radio and television outlets serving the Asian community.

"I'm not only a proud Atlantan," Wan says, "I am proud to be an Asian American, and that community is one of the many I want to be sure to include in an ongoing dialogue about Atlanta's future."

The District 6 seat is currently held by Anne Fauver, a two-term council member who in late April announced her decision not to seek re-election. Wan, who entered the race in May, moved to Atlanta with his family at the age of three from Columbia, South Carolina. He has been a homeowner in the city's Morningside neighborhood for 15 years.

City Council District 6 encompasses much of intown Atlanta, including the Morningside/Lenox Park, Virginia-Highland, Midtown, Ansley Park, Piedmont Heights, Druid Hills, Candler Park and Lindridge-Martin Manor neighborhoods.

Hosts for the September 30 Asian media event are Tim Hur, Sup Suh, and the Law Offices of Geerdes and Kim. Lunch will be provided at this media-only event. For further information, contact Tim Hur, 404-512-2322 or tim.hur@gmail.com.
