Atlanta Police Union endorses Wan

Union representing over 1,100 police officers endorses Alex Wan, a businessman and civic leader who is seeking the Atlanta City Council District 6 seat in that district's runoff race

Atlanta, November 20, 2009 – Alex Wan, a businessman and civic leader who is seeking the Atlanta City Council District 6 seat, has been endorsed by the International Brotherhood of Police Officers (IBPO), Local 623, which represents over 1,100 Atlanta Police Officers.

"Alex has clearly demonstrated that public safety is a top priority for him," says Sgt. Scott Kreher, President of Local 623 and National Vice President of the IBPO. "His business experience and financial background will help the City generate the financial resources needed to strengthen our police force and improve officer morale. We know we can count on him as the District 6 Councilperson to listen to us and hear our concerns on an ongoing basis."

"I am proud to be endorsed by the police," Wan says, "From the beginning of this race I have emphasized the need to redouble efforts on public safety. As City Councilperson, I will work to ensure that these brave men and women have what they need to do their jobs, that they are recognized and rewarded for the hard work they do to keep us safe, and that the City creates a meaningful plan for police retention."

Wan also has been endorsed by:

- Atlanta Realtors Political Action Committee,
  - Atlanta Board of Realtors,
  - Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors,
- Atlanta Stonewall Democrats,
- The Buckhead Coalition,
- Georgia Equality,
- Georgia Log Cabin Republicans,
- The Victory Fund,
- And by former District 6 (general election) opponent Steve Brodie.

Additionally, he is the only candidate in District 6 to receive the highest rating of "Excellent" from the Committee for a Better Atlanta.
