Another former opponent endorses Wan

Tad Christian, who competed in the Atlanta City Council District 6 general election, has endorsed Alex Wan, a candidate in that district's runoff

Atlanta, November 23, 2009 – Alex Wan, a businessman and civic leader who is seeking the Atlanta City Council District 6 seat (to be decided in a December 1 runoff election), has been endorsed by Tad Christian, against whom he competed in the general election.

"Alex and I may not agree on every issue, but we do agree that the City needs a clear plan to address reducing the property tax burden for homeowners and supporting strong law enforcement," Christian says. "I believe Alex's business background and financial experience positions him best to address these challenges. And, more importantly, I know that Alex will always be willing to listen and to try to find ways for people with different points of view to work together."

Christian, a former manager with The Boeing Company, is now a stay-at-home dad. He is an active member of the Morningside neighborhood, and has served on the City of Atlanta's Board of Zoning Adjustments, as President of the Morningside-Lenox Park Civic Association, and in other positions of community leadership.

"I am proud to have Tad's endorsement," Wan says. "He has been an active and tireless supporter of issues that are important in every neighborhood across the district, and I look forward to working with him in doing the work of the people of District 6."

As previously announced, Wan also has been endorsed by former District 6 (general election) opponents Steve Brodie and Miguel Gallegos. Brodie is a Midtown businessman who has been an integral part of neighborhood activities in Midtown, including serving as a board member on NPU-E and the Midtown Neighbors' Association. Gallegos is a Hillary Clinton delegate from the 5th Congressional District.

In addition, Wan has been endorsed by:

- Atlanta Realtors Political Action Committee, which represents the Atlanta Board of Realtors and the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors;
- Atlanta Stonewall Democrats;
- The Buckhead Coalition;
- Georgia Equality;
- Georgia Log Cabin Republicans;

- International Brotherhood of Police Officers (IBPO), Local 623, which represents over 1,100 Atlanta Police Officers; and
- The Victory Fund.

He is the only candidate in District 6 to receive the highest rating of “Excellent” from the Committee for a Better Atlanta.

City Council District 6 encompasses much of intown Atlanta, including the Morningside/Lenox Park, Virginia-Highland, Midtown, Ansley Park, Piedmont Heights, Druid Hills, Candler Park and Lindridge-Martin Manor neighborhoods.
